Dear Sir;.

Many thanks for your letter, which was in reply to that of mine. I'm glad that you liked my letter, which was sincere in every respect.

I have appreciated in hearing from you, and of your thoughtfulness in sending me the photo of yourself that I requested. A slight error was made, of which you did not autograph the photo for me. We all make mistakes, and I realize you are very busy, and that your intentions were good.

Being the Great man that you are, and wanting your photograph autographed, I am re-mailing the photo to you for same.

Thanking you for all your trouble and kindness.

Sincerely,
George C. Starry
